Dear Mr Reece

Beach Volley Ball League and Tournaments

Further to your recent e.mail, I have the pleasure of granting you permission to hold the above events. Permission hereby granted is subject to compliance with the following conditions:-

1. Public Liability Insurance to be obtained to cover the minimum sum of £2m per claim.
2. The Organisers to be responsible for reimbursing the Council for any damage that may be caused to Council property, the cost of which to be assessed by the Head of Street Scene Services.
3. Except in so far as provided for under the Unfair Contract Terms Act 1977, the Council shall not be held liable for any injury to any person or persons, or for damage to the property of such persons howsoever caused, whether through negligence or otherwise, and the Organisers shall indemnify the District Council in respect of all claims which may be received for such injury or damage.
4. The area shall be left in a clean and tidy condition after the event with the Organisers being responsible for the removal of all litter and any other items deposited as a direct or indirect result of the use of the venue.
5. The guidance given in the Health and Safety Executive Guidance Book "The Event Safety Guide" (Ref: HSG195), to be complied with – available from HSE Books on 01787 881165.

I hope you have a successful and enjoyable event.

I apologise for not getting back to you earlier and I hope this has not caused you too many problems.

Yours sincerely
